

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Addresses of contributors	4
Preface and Acknowledgements	6
1. Introduction. Studying rivers in the Roman world T. V. Franconi	7
2. Watery perspectives: a Roman view on rivers B. Campbell	23
3. River adjustment to change: the Rhône in France during the Roman period J.-P. Bravard	33
4. Environmental risk in the Lower Rhône valley: high water levels and floods Ph. Leveau	47
5. High chrono-stratigraphical resolution of the harbour sequence of Ostia: palaeo-depth of the basin, ship draught and dredging J.-P. Goiran, F. Salomon, C. Vittori, H. Delile, J. Christiansen, C. Oberlin, G. Boetto, P. Arnaud, I. Mazzini, L. Sadori, G. Poccardi and A. Pellegrino	68
6. Pater Rhenus : the hydrological history of Rome's German frontier T. V. Franconi	85
7. Geoarchaeology of ancient harbours in lagoonal contexts: an introduction C. Morhange, N. Marriner, G. Bony, C. Flaux, M. Giaime and M. Kouka	97
8. Rivers, wadis and climate in North Africa: torrents and drought A. Wilson	111
9. Gift of the Orontes: fluvial landscapes of northwest Syria in late antiquity M. Whiting	127
10. 360 days of summer: experiencing the fluvial in Egypt's Fayyūm B. Haug	139
11. A second Nature? The riverine landscapes of the Romans N. Purcell	159