

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction: Ateliers and artisans in Roman art and archaeology Troels Myrup Kristensen	6
2. Carving sarcophagi: Roman sculptural workshops and their organisation Stine Birk	13
3. The working and reworking of marble statuary at the Sculptor's Workshop at Aphrodisias Julie Van Voorhis	38
4. Marble sculpture in the Roman Near East: remarks on import, production, and impact Elise A. Friedland	55
5. Mythological marble sculpture of late antiquity and the question of workshops Niels Hannestad	75
6. Workshops, artists and patrons in Roman Britain Martin Henig	113
7. Identifying mosaic workshops in late antiquity: epigraphic evidence and a case study Birte Poulsen	129
8. Mosaic production in 4th-c. Britain: materials, making and makers at Badminton Park William T. Wootton	145
9. Production procedures in the late-antique mosaic workshop: the region of Mount Nebo as a case study for a new approach Diklah Zohar	169
Index	193