

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

1. Introduction

Archaeology in Nijmegen
The natural subsoil – P. W. van den Broeke

2. Historical development

The Augustan conquests
The Early Roman period (19 B.C.–c.A.D. 50)
Formation of the civitas and the Batavian Revolt
The reaction – M. Erdrich
The heyday (A.D. 70-275)
Restoration and aftermath (A.D. 275–450)

3. Spatial development of the military settlements

The military settlements before the Batavian Revolt
    The Augustan legionary camp on the Hunerberg – with F. Kemmers
    The Kops Plateau
    The camps of the auxiliary troops
The limes
The garrison under the Flavians and Trajan
    The stone fortress on the Hunerberg (period 5)
    The wooden fortress on the Hunerberg (period 4)
    The Nijmegen aqueduct – P. A. C. Schut
    The canabae legionis
    The forum

4. Spatial development of the town – with J. R. A. M. Thijssen

Batavodurum: a Batavian sanctuary?
Oppidum Batavorum: ‘town’ for the Batavians
Ulpia Noviomagus

5. The countryside

The development of habitation
An indigenous villa: Druten-Klepperhei
Native settlements on the N side of the Waal – P. W. van den Broeke

6. Romans and Franks: changes in late antiquity – with J. R. A. M. Thijssen

Restoration of the Roman influence in the Lower Rhine area
Nijmegen on the divide between the Roman period and the Middle Ages

7. The population

Demographic development and ethnogenesis
    Roman border politics
    Ethnogenesis
    Social and demographic development
The origins of the soldiers – M. Erdrich
Native and Roman religion – K. Zee
The earliest traces of Christianity – with J. R. A. M. Thijssen
Burial customs – A. Koster

The cemeteries

The Early Roman cemeteries in the east of Nijmegen

The cemetery of Ulpia Noviomagus in Nijmegen West – A. Koster

The indigenous cemetery at Hatert – M. Polak

The late-antique cemeteries – with J. R. A. M. Thijssen

8. Trade and the economy

The rôle of the army

The use and supply of coins in Roman Nijmegen – F. Kemmers

Trade in cereal and other agricultural products

Animal husbandry and fishing – R. C. G. M. Lauwerier

Local industry: brick, pottery, metal and glass – M. Polak

9. Literacy, architecture, sculpture, arms, and minor arts

A lettered world – L. Swinkels

Roman architecture – K. Peterse

The praetorium on the Kops Plateau

The principia of the fortress on the Hunerberg

The villa on the St. Jansberg in Mook-Plasmolen

Sculpture – L. Swinkels

Stone sculpture

Bronzes and terracottas

Decorative crafts – A. Koster

Bibliography