

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Addresses of contributors	4
Dedication to Roberta Tomber, with a list of her published works	6
 Part 1. Ceramic finds from excavations at the Roman circus
1. A pottery deposit of the 3rd c. A.D. from excavations at the circus by the University of Georgia Roberta Tomber† and John Lund	13
2. Pottery lamps in a Severan to late 3rd-c. deposit from excavations at the circus by the University of Georgia Jeremy Rossiter	77
3. Further pottery lamps from the American excavations in the circus (1982-1983 seasons) Jeremy Rossiter with I. MacDonald and G. Haro	87
4. Pottery lamps from the 1990 excavations at the circus by the University of Georgia Jeremy Rossiter	129
 Part 2. Roman ceramics from other contexts at Carthage
5. Relief-decorated African Red Slip Ware in the Carthage Museum Meg Armstrong	149
6. Commentary on African Red Slip Ware with appliqués and relief decoration in the Carthage Museum Michael Mackensen	174
7. The cemetery of the officiales and its pottery lamps Jeremy Rossiter	185
 Part 3. Work by the Second Canadian team in 1981-1983
8. Inscriptions from the Theodosian Wall sector (Second Canadian team) and the 1983 field survey Leonard Curchin and Joseph Greene	207
9. Commercial premises and a late kiln north of decumanus VI N at cardo IV E (Second Canadian team, excavations of 1981-82, Trench 2CC9) Simon P. Ellis with an Appendix on the pottery by Lucinda Neuru	229
 Part 4. Sculptures and church mosaics
10. Funerary portraits from Carthage: a charioteer and his female companion Andrew J. B. Crocker	269
11. The peristyle mosaic of the Byzantine pilgrimage church complex at Bir Ftouha, freshly considered (with foldouts in endpocket) Susan T. Stevens	283
 Addendum/corrigendum
Illustrations of glass from the crypt at Bir Messaouda Sylvia Fünfschilling	327